A Sad Accident

John Wynne, a single man about 28 years of age was accidentally killed near the Osage bridge at an early hour this morning.

The recent rains have swollen that stream to such proportions that the bridge was endangered, and a party composed of three of the regular Mo. Pac. bridge gang was stationed there to watch the same during last night. At an early hour this morning Mr. Wynne, becoming weary and sleepy, built up a fire near the track and lay down to rest. He soon fell asleep, but shortly afterwards was aroused by the rumbling noise of an oncoming freight train. Half asleep and half awake the unfortunate man raised up just in time to be struck in the back of the head by the pilot beam of the passing engine. His companions rushed to his rescue, but when picked up he was found to be bleeding profusely from the horrible wound on the back of his head.

The north-bound passenger, due here at 4:20, was flagged and the unfortunate man taken on board and brought to this city, where medical aid was immediately summoned, but to no avail as the poor fellow died shortly afterwards, never having regained consciousness.—Rich Hill Review, June 22.

One of the promises made by the defenders of the monstrous McKinley bill was that it would increase the wages of American labor. Mr. McKinley will now have the opportunity of explaining on the stump why it was, that just as he is nominated for Governor on the platform of the McKinley bill, 22,000 mill operatives in the city of Fall River, Mass., are asked to submit to a reduction in wages amounting to 10 per cent.—St. Louis Republic.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The republican convention of Ohio last week nominated McKinley for governor of the state with a whoop. The action of the convention in thus nominating the father of the high tariff bill will make the election in Ohio this fall of national importance. It is said the administration party will spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to carry the state. The farmers' alliance of Ohio oppose the high tariff and favor the free coinage of silver and the result of this election will be watched with interest to see what the action and platform of the republican party of that state will have upon this class of voters. There is one thing certain they must now show their colors or pull in their skirts, as the Ohio republican convention has waved the red flag in their faces.

FOSTER, 221 Chestnut St., St. Louis, Mo.

What Does It Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to the directions, are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

W. C. Wolfe, the oldest type-setter in the country, drowned himself in the Muskingum river, near Coshocton, Ohio, last Monday. He was 85 years of age and had been for 67 years an active type-setter.

A SCROFULOUS BOY.
Running Sores Covered his Body and Head, Bones Affected. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

When six months old, the little grandchild began to swell, and had every appearance of a large boil. We positioned it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became running sore. Soon other sores formed. The child had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it was time for them to break out. I was sure on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was covered with a scab, resembling a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his limbs. I immediately commenced with the Cuticura Remedies, using all freely. One sore after another healed, a hard matter forming in each one of these deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out, then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly boils formed on his chest, and was a dozen and a half inches in diameter. After using Cuticura he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. Mrs. E. S. Briggs, May 9, 1891. 612 Clay St., Bloomington, Ill. My grandson remains perfectly well. No signs of scrofula and no sores.

Feb. 7, 1890. Mrs. E. S. Briggs, Bloomington, Ill.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given, That letters of administration on the partnership estate of N. B. and E. W. Coleman, were granted to the undersigned on the 1st day of June, 1891, in the probate court of Bates County, Missouri.

All persons having claims against said partnership estate, are required to exhibit them for allowance to the administrator, within one year after the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of said partnership estate. This 2nd day of June, 1891.

Surviving partner and Administrator.

Mr. Quay announces that he will not accept the chairmanship of the republican national committee for the next presidential campaign. This looks bad for republican success in '92. Rats desert a sinking ship and the old, gray, long headed, experienced fellows are the first to leave. So the sailors say.

RUINOUS RAINS

Fort Scott Suddenly Flooded—Grave Fear for the Safety of Many Stricken People.

Chanute and Arkansas City Also Swept by Bad Storms.

Fort Scott, Kan., June 20.—A disastrous rain storm struck this community to night at 9 o'clock and vast volumes of water fell to the damage of growing crops, while it is probable several lives were lost.

Surface water swelled the streams which run through and surround this city out of all proportions, and the large dams of Mead & Hartman and H. H. Lamb broke about fifteen minutes after the storm began. The bottom land settlements were completely flooded.

Houses were swept away like straws and it is feared many lives have been lost. The fire departments and in fact every available man in the city is out trying to assist in the rescue, but, from all appearances, they are perfectly helpless. The water in what is known as Buck run bottoms is fully a mile in width. Numbers of men women and children can be seen on roof tops and trees, but it is impossible to reach them.

The storm ceased late to night, but to-morrow's sun will probably shine on many a floating corpse.

RAIN, HAIL AND A CYCLONE.

Chanute, Kan., June 19.—At 7 o'clock this evening the worst wind and rain storm that ever visited this section struck this town and lasted forty minutes. The water fell in perfect sheets, obscuring the view of buildings from the opposite side of the street. Several buildings were very badly damaged among them being the Presbyterian church.

About 2,000 acres of wheat on the bottom of the Neosho river east of the city is given up as a total loss, it being all blown down.

Arkansas City, Kan., June 19.—The hail storm which visited this section this evening was the worst ever known here. Balls of ice fell for nearly half an hour, many of which were thirteen inches in circumference and few being smaller than a walnut. Windows were broken in one fourth the houses in the town and other damage done. Southwest of here near the state line a cyclone did great damage to property but no persons were injured.

FOUR LIVES LOST IN NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., June 19.—The heaviest rainfall experienced in twenty-eight years in Nebraska fell at Neligh yesterday, over five and one-half inches coming down within three hours. Drains and ravines became torrents and brooks became rivers. John Lonsensen, a farmer, was washed from his wagon and drowned while crossing a flooded ravine.

Three children living in Emerick township, about fifteen miles south-east of Tilden were drowned during the storm while trying to reach the house from school. A ravine which they were accustomed to cross suddenly filled with the flood, washing them away.

Lamont, Col., June 19.—The warm weather of the past few days has caused an unusual amount of snow to melt in the mountains the result of which is that the St. Vrain river is overflowing its banks and in many places inundating valleys, weakening bridges and doing thousands of dollars worth of damage to the growing crops. The waters are still rising and further damage is feared.

Bloomington, Ill., June 19.—Three of bridges of the Lake Erie Western railroad between Crandall and Farmdale, west of this city, were destroyed Wednesday night by a cloud burst which flooded Farm creek valley. Five other bridges were crippled and several trains had narrow escapes and all were delayed.

The loss by the flood at Utica last night will exceed $200,000. The flood was caused by a cloud burst.

Peoria, Ill., June 19.—Additional particulars of the flood on Farm creek and Copperas creek valleys last night verify the first reports. The people in Fon du Lac were completely hemmed in by water. But to-day two men from there rowed to the bridge and reached this city. The farmers for sixty miles up the river and a mile and a half back to the hills have lost all their crops. In many places the water is yet standing nine feet deep over cornfields.

Household furniture of people in Farmdale and Hilton was all washed away. Baby carriages, wagons, dead cattle, pianos, tables and fences are piled ten feet high against the railroad trestle. The iron bridge, 300 feet long, over Ten Mile creek, just completed, was washed away and has not yet been located.

Governor Hogg, of Texas has three bright children, two boys, and a girl, whose names respectively are Ina Hogg, Ura Hogg and Moore Hogg. These names, the public is told, were bestowed by Governor Hogg himself. This shows that in naming children the governor is the biggest hog of all.

Wanted—Hides, pelts, feathers, beeswax, and grease North Main St., opposite post-office. J. FISHER.
